

The President and Council of the actlawsociety

invites members of the legal profession to attend the

Commencement of the Legal Year Church Service

9am on Monday 1 February 2010
at St Joseph's Catholic Church

(Macarthur Avenue, O'Connor, ACT)

Judges, Magistrates and members of the legal profession are invited to enter the Church in procession, forming at 8.50 am outside.

Reverend Canon Russel Avery
(Senior State Chaplain of NSW Police, Archdiocese of Canberra & Goulburn) will deliver the Address on
'Christ enables the fulfilment of both civil and religious law'.

To facilitate attendance, the Courts will not commence their sittings before 11.00 am.

This Service welcomes members of the profession from all backgrounds. Spouses, families and friends are welcome to attend.

Morning tea will be provided following the service.
